

Toward R&D Program Contributing to ST&I Policy

RISTEX (Research Institute of Science and Technology for Society) has been providing a fund for R&D program on Science of Science, Technology and Innovation Policy to encourage new challenge by field fusion. Main objective of the adopted research projects is set on contribution for some kinds of policies and the adopted projects are given many advices on the way to be transformed more forward the objective. The first six projects launched in 2011, and the second five projects has just adopted in 2012.

This workshop is a chance to reconsider the funding program in the international view. Especially, we welcome advices on :

- Consistency with adopted projects and the objective of this program
- Refinement for the next open offer

We would also like to discuss about the role of this funding program in the whole design of SciREX (Science for RE-designing Science, Technology and Innovation Policy) .
