

Dr. Poh Kam Wong

Director

NUS Entrepreneurship Centre

Singapore

Biography

Educational Background

- B.Sc. Physics, Massachusetts Institute of Technology (MIT), 1974
- B.Sc. Electrical Engineering, Massachusetts Institute of Technology (MIT), 1974
- M.Sc. Electrical Engineering & Computer Science, Massachusetts Institute of Technology (MIT), 1975
- Ph.D. Regional Planning, Massachusetts Institute of Technology (MIT), 1979

Professional Experience

- 2001–Present Director, NUS Entrepreneurship Centre
- 2006–Present Associate Professor, Lee Kuan Yew School of Public Policy, NUS
- 2001–Present Chairman, Business Angel Network (Southeast Asia)
- 2006–Present Chairman, BAF Spectrum Pte Ltd (a private-equity fund)
- 2001–Present Member of board of directors of several high-tech companies, including iWow Technology, GlobalRoam, NUS Technology Holdings and Invantest
- 2004–Present Panel member, The Enterprise Challenge (TEC)
(a fund under the Singapore Prime Minister's Department to support innovation in the public sector)
- 1999–Present Co-Chairman, StartUp@Singapore national business plan competition
- 1997–Present Associate Professor, NUS Business School, NUS
- 2001, 2005 Visiting Scholar, Stanford University
- 1998–2000 Director, Centre for Management of Innovation & Technopreneurship (CMIT), NUS
- 1991–1998 Director, Centre for Management of Technology, NUS Business School, NUS
- 1988–1997 Senior Lecturer, NUS Business School, NUS
- 1985–1988 Co-founder of 3 companies in Malaysia
- 1984–1985 Fulbright Visiting Scholar, U.C. Berkeley
- 1979–1984 Lecturer, Universiti Sains Malaysia, Malaysia

Field of Study

Innovation policy, High tech entrepreneurship, Industrial policy