

The Supercomputing Conference 2013 (SC13) was held Nov. 17 – 22, 2013, in Denver, Colorado, USA, the Research Area “post-peta”, CREST, JST opened the booth at its exposition to introduce the research contents.

It was the first time to open the booth at SC, and it was a good opportunity to introduce the activities at research and development of system software concern about the next generation supercomputers in Japan to the world.

Appearance of Research Area “post-peta” booth at SC13

Research Supervisor and persons concerned of Research Area “post-peta” at booth